Effective July 21, 2011, words were added to the end of the first sentence of paragraph 28 of the Deposit Account Agreement. (The additional words are in bold below.) As of July 21, 2011, paragraph 28 reads as follows:

28. Account Type and Payment of Interest. If your account is a demand account, it will not earn interest unless your account is a non-consumer account, you have requested us to pay you interest, and you have agreed to the terms of the interest bearing demand account. If your account is a NOW account and if an entity not allowed by federal regulations to have such an account becomes an owner, we will convert the account into a checking or savings account. In accordance with the Truth-in-Savings Act, we have given you disclosures explaining applicable transaction limits, fees, interest, rates, and balance requirements.

Effective September 1, 2011, on consumer accounts only, Turstmark will limit the number of Non-Sufficient Funds fees or Overdraft fees, or a combination thereof, to 5 per day per account.

In Case of Error or Questions About Your Electronic Transfer or Direct Deposit

Write or telephone us as soon as you can, if you think your statement or receipt is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer or direct deposit listed on the statement or receipt. We must be notified by you no later than 60 days after we sent the first statement on which the problem or error appeared.

1. Tell us your name and account number.
2. Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
