Important FDIC Information For All Deposit Customers

On October 3, 2008, President Bush signed the Emergency Economic Stabilization Act of 2008, which temporarily raises the basic limit on federal deposit insurance coverage from $100,000 to $250,000 per depositor. The temporary increase became effective immediately upon the President's signature. The legislation provides that the basic deposit insurance limit will return to $100,000 on December 31, 2009.

If you want to learn more about this temporary change, you may go to the FDIC's website at <http://www.myFDICinsurance.gov> and use EDIE the Estimator to learn more about FDIC insurance coverage. Or you may contact your nearest Trustmark branch.

Funds Availability Disclosure

Our policy is to make funds from your check deposits and cash deposits, other than those made in person to a Trustmark employee or deposited in a night depository, available to you on the first business day after the day we receive your deposit. Cash deposits made in person to a Trustmark employee, or deposited in a night depository, and electronic direct deposits will be available on the day we receive the deposit.

If you are a new customer, the following special rules may apply during the first 30 days your account is open. Funds from cash deposits made in person to a Trustmark employee and electronic direct deposits to your account will be available on the day we receive the deposit. Funds from cash deposits, other than those made in person to a Trustmark employee, wire transfers and the first $5,000 of a day's total deposits of cashier's, certified, teller's, traveler's, and federal, state and local government checks will be available on the first business day after the day of your deposit if the deposit meets certain conditions.

CONSUMER ACCOUNTS ONLY

In Case of Error or Questions About Your Electronic Transfer or Direct Deposit

Write or telephone us as soon as you can, if you think your statement or receipt is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer or direct deposit listed on the statement or receipt. We must be notified by you no later than 60 days after we sent the first statement on which the problem or error appeared.

1. Tell us your name and account number.
2. Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
3. Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

We will generally complete our investigation within 10 business days and correct any error promptly. In some cases, an investigation may take longer, but you will have the use of the funds in question after the 10 business days. If we ask you to put your complaint or questions in writing and we do not receive it within 10 business days, we may not credit your account during the investigation.

If we decide that there was no error, we will send you a written explanation within 3 business days after we finish our investigation. You may ask for copies of the documents that we used in our investigation.

For questions or problems relating to your Trustmark Express Card or any electronic fund transfer, call us at 1-601-961-6000 (in the Jackson, Mississippi area) or at 1-800-243-2524 (all other locations). If you prefer you may write us at the following address:

Our Privacy Policy

An Important Notice Concerning Our Privacy Policy

The Trustmark Corporation Family of Companies

Trustmark National Bank
 Trustmark Securities, Inc.
 Trustmark Investment Advisors, Inc.
 The Bottrell Insurance Agency, Inc.
 Fisher-Brown, Inc.
 TRMK Risk Management, Inc.
 Somerville Bank & Trust Company

For more than a century, earning our customers' trust has been Trustmark's highest priority. In continuing that tradition, we know that the personal information you share with us should be handled very carefully. Because of federal legislation, all financial institutions are required to provide privacy policies to their customers. We value your confidence in us and assure you that protecting your privacy continues to be a priority to the members of the Trustmark family named above (our affiliates). It is Trustmark's policy not to sell information about our customers to third parties. Thank you for your business and for the confidence you have placed in Trustmark.

Information We Collect

We collect nonpublic personal information about you from the following sources:

- * Information we receive from you on applications or other forms, such as your name, address, social security number, assets, and income;
- * Information about your transactions with us, our affiliates or others, such as your account balance, payment history, parties to transactions, and credit card usage;
- * Information we receive from a consumer reporting agency, such as your creditworthiness and credit history.

Information We May Disclose

- * We are permitted under the law to disclose all of the information we collect, as described above, to companies that perform marketing services on our behalf or to other financial institutions with which we have joint marketing agreements.
- * We are also permitted under the law to disclose nonpublic personal information about you to nonaffiliated third parties (third parties that are not members of our corporate family) in certain other circumstances. For example, we may disclose nonpublic personal information about you to such third parties to assist us in servicing your loan or account with us, to process and service transactions you request or authorize, to protect against potential fraud or unauthorized transactions, in response to judicial process, and to consumer reporting agencies.

Information We Do Not Disclose

- * We do not sell information about our customers to third parties.

Explanation of Right to Opt Out of Sharing Certain Information With Our Affiliates, The Trustmark Corporation Family of Companies

We are permitted under law to share with our affiliates information about our experiences or transactions with you or your account (such as your account balance and your payment history with us). We also may share with our affiliates additional information about you or your account, such information we collect as described above, including information we receive from you in applications, and information from consumer reporting agencies, such as your creditworthiness and credit history. You may direct us not to disclose to our affiliates information that does not relate solely to our affiliate's experiences or transactions with you or your account (such as the application information and consumer reporting agency information) by calling the following toll-free number: 1-800-844-4357. Your decision to opt-out is also a request for us not to share information among our affiliates about our transactions and experiences with you for the purpose of marketing products or services. If you have a joint account, such a request by one individual will apply to all individuals on the account. If you have previously directed us not to share your information, you do not need to make this request again.

Our Confidentiality and Security Procedures

We also take steps to safeguard customer information. We restrict access to your personal and account information to those employees with proper authorization to access such information. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with the federal standards to guard your nonpublic personal information.

Thank you for banking with us.
